

PRESIDENT ASKS
FOR FAIR FIGHT

Taft Makes First Political Address Since Notification.

TALKS TO MARYLAND EDITORS

Chief Executive Bluntly Declares Electors Are Dishonest Men if They Let Their Names Appear on the Republican Ballot and Intend to Vote for the Candidate of Another Party.

Washington, Aug. 17.—President Taft made his first political speech since that he made when notified of his renomination. Addressing members of the Maryland Republican Editorial association in the east room of the White House he declared bluntly that presidential electors were "dishonest men" if they let their names appear on the Republican ballot and intended to vote for the candidate of another party. He asserted that those who were not for the Republican party were against it and should get out of the way.

"All we ask is a fair fight. A man cannot be in the Republican party and in a third party at the same time and should be compelled to make his selection," he said. "Regularity or feeling of regularity and respect for the Republican party for what it has done, what it is capable of doing, are going to bring over into the Republican party many a man who has been doubtful and it is going to increase that number, in my judgment, as we approach the election."

"It is therefore essential that we make the cleavage as clear as it can be made, so that those who are Republicans shall be Republicans and those who are with the bolters shall bear their name and title and not be Republicans and bolters, because they cannot be—at least they ought not to be—in all fairness. We ought to have electors in each state bearing the emblem of the Republican party, bearing the names of the candidate of that party for president or vice president at the head of the ticket, covering the electors who are going to vote for those names."

If there are any men on that list who are not going to vote for the man at the head of that ticket I don't hesitate to say that they are dishonest men, in that they are holding out to the people who are to vote for them an implied promise that they will vote for the names on the ticket, when they, in fact, intend to vote for somebody else. I think that is just following the plainest kind of principles of ordinary morale."

Support From Maryland.

Some of the editors told the president that either the electors chosen for the Republican ticket in Maryland would declare their intention to support him or a new state convention would be held to make new selections. He said he felt sure Maryland would take long steps in the right direction.

The president began his speech with a brief summary of what he said the Republican party stands for. He said: "We are Republicans. That means that we believe in certain principles; that we believe in the Constitution of the United States; that we believe in maintaining that Constitution; that we believe in the progress along the lines that Constitution indicates. We are protectionists, and we are in favor of maintaining a tariff system which shall preserve business as it goes on now and shall secure as high wages as possible to the wage earners and a reasonable profit to those who invest their capital. Those two propositions cover a good deal of Republicanism."

"Being a party we are anxious to have the opinions that our party represents put into force in the operation of the government. The only way we can do that is by electing a congress and a president who will carry them out. Now, that means that we have to be a single party and not a part of two parties. I don't think we are unfair in asking that we be given a chance for a fair fight and in counting those against us who are not with us."

"To have a man on both sides of the fight, when we are on one side, is uncomfortable, especially when he is behind you."

"Before the convention it is all right that we should differ as to the men best qualified to represent us as Republicans in carrying out the principles of the party. But after the convention each voter's influence should carry its proper and proportionate weight in the election of the party's candidates."

Hundreds Pray In Street.

New York, Aug. 17.—Twelve hundred Italians who had just left a midnight open air celebration of the feast of the Assumption in the Upper Bronx, met in the street at 1 o'clock in the morning, around the body of Frank Timoli, one of their leaders, who lay incapacitated after a Jerry Avenue street car.

Nat Goodwin Will Recover.

Los Angeles, Aug. 17.—Nat Goodwin, who was injured when his rowboat was dashed upon the rocks north of here, is much improved and his recovery is assured.

Turks Commit Terrible Barbarities in Albania.

CARNAGE IN BERANA DISTRICT

Band of Mohammedans and Number of Troops Attack Christian Population and Women and Children Are Reported to Have Been Brutally Slain by Wholesale—Many Girls Made Captive and Carried Away.

Cettinje, Montenegro, Aug. 17.—Terrible reports are gaining circulation in the capital of another massacre of Christians by Mohammedans in Albania.

A band of Mohammedan arnauts, supported by Turkish troops, attacked a section of the Christian population in the Berana district of Albania, which lies close to the Montenegrin frontier.

A fierce fight ensued and women and children are reported to have been murdered by wholesale. Many girls were made captive and carried off by the Mohammedans.

A large number of Christians and their families have fled the territory and taken refuge in Montenegro.

The government has ordered the minister of war, General Vukotich, to proceed to the frontier and to personally take charge of the situation in an effort to maintain order.

The massacre of Christians at Berana is the second outbreak of this nature in the Balkans within a fortnight and may have an important effect upon the already strained relations between the Ottoman empire and its neighbors to the North.

On Aug. 2 last a massacre of Bulgarians by Mussulmans, lasting several hours, followed the explosion of a bomb in the market place of Kotschana, in European Turkey. The infuriated Turks, who suspected Bulgarians of perpetrating the bomb outrage, in which eleven persons were killed, are reported to have slain no fewer than 140 Christians, besides wounding several hundred others.

Feeling which had been aroused throughout Bulgaria by acute political relations between Bulgaria and Turkey was intensified by the massacre and the Bulgarian government strongly protested to Turkey. In reply Turkey informed the Bulgarian minister that a commission had been appointed to inquire into the disturbance and that the porte profoundly regretted that innocent Bulgarian lives had been sacrificed. The Turkish government also announced that it was determined to punish the guilty and intended to take active measures to prevent a repetition of the massacre.

FORSAKES PULPIT FOR STAGE

Wisconsin Clergyman Says He Aims to Elevate Drama.

Milwaukee, Aug. 17.—"I feel as though I made a mistake in the choice of my profession and I think I should have the courage to make a change to one I am more fitted for," said Rev. William F. Phillips, ordained an Episcopal clergyman in Milwaukee and for the last four years rector of St. John's church in Portage, who is going on the stage in the role of Manson in "The Servant in the House."

"I take up stage work with the highest ideals. My aim will be ever to elevate the stage. I feel fortunate in having the fine part of Manson in such an uplifting drama. My desire, ultimately, is to play Shakespearean roles, especially tragic parts."

FIX MEASURE TO SUIT TAFT

Legislative Appropriation Bill Reintroduced in House.

Washington, Aug. 17.—As a result of the failure of the house to pass the legislative-executive-judicial appropriation bill over the president's veto the house appropriations committee struck from the measure the features objectionable to President Taft. These were the provision for the abolition of the commerce court and that fixing a seven-year tenure of office for government employees under civil service.

The measure was reintroduced in the house.

Recover Alleged Stolen Goods.

St. Paul, Aug. 17.—A raid on the house of an alleged thief resulted in the arrest of Chester Haywood, a freight checker in the employ of the Great Northern railway, and the recovery of more than $5,000 worth of property of all kinds, which, it is said, Haywood accumulated in the past few months. Two trips were made by the squad wagon to carry the goods to the police station.

Chairman of Speakers' Bureau.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Announcement was made at Progressive headquarters of the appointment of Henry F. Cochems of Milwaukee as chairman of the speakers' bureau for the presidential campaign.

DUKE OF SUTHERLAND.

Sees No Reason for Trouble Over Canal.

SEES NO DISPUTE OVER CANAL

Duke of Sutherland Says Only English Politicians Discuss It.

New York, Aug. 17.—The Duke of Sutherland, who, with his family, was a passenger on the Mauretania, arriving here, speaking of the Panama canal bill, said:

"There is not going to be any trouble between England and America over the Panama canal. The English people are not discussing the matter. It is only the politicians who are doing the talking. The English people have the utmost confidence in the justice of the American government. There could be no international dispute. The two countries are too friendly."

The duke and his family will remain here a few days and then go to Canada.

LA FOLLETTE FINDS
MORE TO CONDEMN

Taft and Wilson Criticized and Roosevelt Scored.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 17.—The Taft, Wilson and Roosevelt acceptance speeches receive exhaustive analysis from the La Follette point of view in the senator's weekly. Praise for Governor Wilson's stand on some issues is offset by criticism of other issues. Referring to the Democratic candidate he says:

"Restraint and understatement characterize and in a degree weaken his presentation of the issues. He frankly announces, and this doubtless required courage, that he believes in the principle of tariff for revenue. But while he defines his policy on the tariff, as revision downward, steadily downward, he cautions against revision in a way to violently disturb the business of the country."

President Taft's speech is described by the senator as an appeal to the conservative vote of the country and he says it will please those whom it was intended to please—those who deprecate disturbance in business conditions.

The Oyster Bay candidate gets another grilling from the senator. The editorial reads, in part:

"He (Roosevelt) is forcible, definite and positive on matters about which there can be no dispute. He asserts, with the enthusiasm of an original discoverer, principles advocated by Republican progressives years ago when conservatism was the only progressive policy which Roosevelt favored."

M'CORMICK VERY CONFIDENT

Declares Roosevelt Will Carry New York State.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Medill McCormick returned to Progressive headquarters in Chicago from New York and declared that Colonel Roosevelt would carry New York because of the feeling among upstate Democrats against men active in Mr. Wilson's behalf and the antipathy of upstate Republicans against President Taft.

"I was amazed at the situation that I discovered in the state of New York," said McCormick. "I am convinced that Colonel Roosevelt will carry the state with a handsome margin."

"President Taft will not carry a single New England state—not even Rhode Island. The Republican state ticket will run third in Vermont."

Indian and Squaw Meet Death.

Marshalltown, Ia., Aug. 17.—Two Indians, a man and his squaw, were killed, and an Indian boy was severely injured east of this city when they were struck by a Northwestern train. John Money and his squaw died instantly. George Youngblood, aged fourteen, had his arm crushed. The Indians belonged on the Tama reservation.

CANNOT CHECK
IMMIGRATION

Harder Each Session to Pass Restriction Bills.

FOREIGN ELEMENT PREVENTS.

Fate of the Dillingham Bill an Illustration—Complimenting Rucker of Colorado—Important Committee Chairmanships in Senate to Go Out of Old Hands.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 17.—[Special.]—Advocates of immigration restriction will find it more and more difficult to pass such measures as time goes on. Many people believe that for all practical purposes this country has a sufficient population, that the natural increase will be sufficient to occupy the sparsely settled regions in the future and that the people who are now here can work out the destiny of the republic. But their ideas cannot prevail.

Every effort toward restriction of immigration fails. The representatives of the large cities and those rural communities where there is a large foreign born population or descendants of foreigners are always strong enough to prevent the passage of restrictive immigration bills. It is true that labor organizations have been making efforts along this line, but they are not potent against the men who are elected by alien voters.

A Striking Example.

There never has been a more striking example of the ability of men to prevent legislation than shown during the session of congress when the Dillingham-Burnett bill was pressed with such vigor. The bill had to pass the senate because it got in front of other measures and had to be pushed through. But it was held up in the house as if an arrangement had been made for that purpose.

Friends of the measure often denounced the majority leaders for preventing consideration of the immigration bill, but that was all that came of it. It was noticed that the strongest demand for restrictive immigration legislation came from those states where there are scarcely any immigrants from the old world.

Bouquet For Rucker.

Congressman Rucker has many serious ways, but he is beyond question a very able man, and he has the saving grace of a sense of humor with which he often illuminates the dull pages of the Congressional Record. He recently finished a speech in which he reviewed his congressional career, but which touched the house.

Congressman Austin of Tennessee, a Republican, immediately handed out one of those pretty little speeches, "a bouquet of words," closing with the statement that he reflected the sentiment of both Republicans and Democrats when he expressed "the hope that the Democracy of Colorado will do itself proud and do justice to his splendid record by renominating him to a seat in the house."

Warren on the Impossible.

Senator Warren of Wyoming is beset by many trials at the close of a session because he has taken about every important appropriation bill in sight under his control. He was having trouble over disagreements on these bills and spoke rather sharply to the lawyers. "I hope it will be understood after awhile," he said, "that all of the attorneys of the body will never agree upon anything heretofore."

In the next congress an effort will be made to relieve Warren and other senators of much of the care and burdens they have been bearing the past few years by distributing the important committee places.

Handing One to Mann.

Minority Leader Jim Mann made a political speech in the house which was very near giving up hope for the fall elections, but ending with the assertion that the country was great enough to survive a Democratic success. Congressman Connell of New York took up the subject later in the day, saying that Mann had delivered a "fearful yet hopeful political oration over his party."

"But the gentleman from Illinois left us a few peeping rays of hope," said Connell. "He admitted that even after Democracy had done its worst the sun would still shine, the streams would still flow down to wider waters, the rain would fall and the crops would grow. Oh, gracious admission! Oh, rainbow of promise, how glorious thou art!"

Modern Appliances.

"We ought not to be deprived of using these modern appliances," declared Gardner of Massachusetts, speaking in the house.

"In naming these modern appliances for doing business," asked Beall of Texas, "did you inadvertently forget the steam roller?"

Now It Is Baseball.

Several years ago it was horse racing that interfered with a quorum of the house, but congress passed a bill shutting out betting at the race track in the District and that closed the race track. Now it is baseball, more particularly since the Washington club has been playing such pennant winning ball. Every day when there is a game the house is deserted.

Passenger Balloons.

Ascents of passenger carrying balloons were first made in England in 1784.

SENATOR HEYBURN.

Denounces the Wool Bill as a Democratic Measure.

SUSTAINS PRESIDENT'S VETO

Senate Fails to Repass the Wool Tariff Bill.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The senate voted to sustain the veto of the president on the wool bill.

When the vote finally was taken forty-nine senators voted in favor of passing the bill and thirty-six against it.

Senator La Follette made the motion to re-pass the wool bill. He asserted that it was a protective tariff bill and was framed according to the tariff board's report on the wool industry. He analyzed the report of the tariff board and compared it with the bill. Senator La Follette asserted that the failure of the president to accept the "judgment of congress" was a usurpation of power.

Senator Heyburn answered Mr. La Follette and denounced the bill as a Democratic measure.

PRESIDENT MAY VETO
PANAMA CANAL BILL

Fears Serious Complications With Maritime Nations.

Washington, Aug. 17.—President Taft contemplates vetoing the Panama canal bill. He practically has reached the conclusion that the provision admitting American coastwise traffic to the waterway without payment of tolls might seriously embarrass the United States in its relations with the maritime nations of the world.

This is the point that had been urged upon the administration by Representative Stevens of St. Paul ever since the canal bill has been pending in congress. As a member of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce Mr. Stevens was one of the authors of the Panama canal bill.

In conference with President Taft, Secretary of State Knox and Secretary of War Winthrop, Mr. Stevens has repeatedly insisted that if foreign ships were required to pay tolls at Panama, and American ships admitted without charge, Great Britain could plead violation of obligations incurred in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. Mr. Stevens also pointed out that if this policy was adopted Great Britain would make reprisals by imposing tolls on American shipping passing through the Canadian rivers and Canada.

DROWN AS LAUNCH BURNS

Man and Woman Perish Near Shoreham, Minn.

Moorhead, Minn., Aug. 17.—Cora Gysland, twenty-one years old, and Charles Hurley, thirty-two years old, both employees at the Shoreham hotel, a summer resort fifty miles east of here, drowned when they jumped from a burning launch. Their bodies were recovered. They clasped one another in a grip which it was found difficult to break.

Hurley and Miss Gysland were members of a party of seven which went for a launch ride. Hurley acted as engineer and after lighting a cigar threw the burning match into some gasoline. Flames spread, setting the boat afire. Miss Gysland pushed Hurley into the water and followed. Other members of the party did not see them again.

The other three women and two men jumped into the water and kept hold of the burning boat until onlookers on shore saw the flames and rescued them.

GETS A MINNESOTA REPORT

Governor Wilson Hears He Will Carry the State.

Seagirt, N. J., Aug. 17.—Governor Wilson received a report made by Fred B. Lynch, national committeeman in Minnesota, stating that while the Roosevelt movement was strong the Wilson forces "would carry the state."

Democratic editors throughout the country soon may be invited to gather at Seagirt for a conference with Mr. Wilson.

Josephus E. Daniels, national committeeman from North Carolina and chairman of the committee on publicity, had a long talk with the governor, in which he broached the plan for a meeting of editors of Democratic and independent papers, the time to coincide with the annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers' association in New York next month.

"I like the idea very much," Governor Wilson said in commenting on Mr. Daniels' scheme.

KNOX STARTS ON LONG TRIP

Secretary of State Leaves Washington for Japan.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Secretary of State Philander C. Knox, for the time being special ambassador of President Taft to Emperor Yoshihito of Japan, left, accompanied by Mrs. Knox and Randolph S. Miller, chief of the Far Eastern division of the state department, on a journey half way around the world to represent personally the president of the United States at the funeral ceremonies of the deceased Japanese Emperor Mutsuhito, at Tokio Sept. 13.

The party left in a special car and will travel by way of Chicago, St. Paul and Banff to Seattle, where it will embark on the armored cruiser Maryland.

Roosevelt Receives Rousing Welcome at Providence.

CHEERS, SONGS AND PRAYER

Progressive Party Candidate for President is Forced to Halt Twice in the Street and Make Remarks to the Crowd—Hall in Which Colonel Delivers His Main Address is Well Filled and Many Stand Outside.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 17.—With cheering and songs and prayer the Progressive party's national campaign opened here. Theodore Roosevelt came to Rhode Island, which he described as a boss ridden state, to open the campaign and received a welcome, which, as he put it, would have done credit to Kansas.

When Colonel Roosevelt reached Providence he found several thousand persons massed in the square before the railroad station and on the street leading to his hotel. The crowd blocked the way and cheered him until he stood up in his automobile and made a speech. He was halted a second time in front of the city hall and made another address.

Later Colonel Roosevelt stood on the stage at Infantry hall, laughing and waving his hands at the crowd which was wedged into the big building. For several minutes the people cheered. The band played patriotic airs and the colonel beat time. Outside the building were hundreds who were unable to get in.

When the din finally died away Colonel Roosevelt stepped to the front of the stage and looked down at his audience.

"I was told only six months ago," he said, "that there was not a Progressive in Rhode Island. I think it is pretty plain that statement is erroneous."

"Right at the outset," he continued, "I wish to answer a question that has been put to me two or three times since I reached Rhode Island. Men have asked me if this movement is going to go on or if it is just a movement which is connected with me. This movement is going on just as sure as fate. This is a real movement, springing from the needs and hearts of the people of the United States."

Will Deal With Live Issues.

"The only part that I have had in it is that perhaps I have brought it on two or three years earlier than it would have come anyhow. The man is blind who does not see that our people are tired of having other people govern them. Our people were making up their minds that there must be a new party which should deal with live issues instead of dead ones."

"Lincoln had been a lifelong Whig," Colonel Roosevelt said, "when it became evident that the Whig party was unable to longer face the live issues of that day he joined the new party that could face the issues."

"This is a permanent movement. It is a permanent party, a new party. Every man who does not want the bosses to rule, whom we can get at, is going to be for us. The only difficulty is in getting at enough of them."

Colonel Roosevelt kept his audience in a happy mood with epigrammatic remarks which he interjected into his speech.

"The boss in private life could not look you in the face without grinning if you called him a servant of the people," he said.

At another time he compared the Republican and Democratic parties to a pair of wolves fighting for a sheep. "When two wolves fight for a sheep," said he, "each wolf dislikes the other, but there is no one benefit to the sheep in that dislike."

In his prepared speech Colonel Roosevelt assailed the Republican and Democratic parties and discussed the tariff and the currency question. He devoted one portion of his address to criticism of Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island.

FRENCH SLAUGHTER MOORS

Clash With 3,000 Followers of Pretender of Sicily.

Fez, Morocco, Aug. 17.—A severe fight occurred at Mouley Bouchta between French troops under General Gouand and Moorish followers of the pretender of Sicily in which the French lost eight killed and forty wounded.

Three thousand Moors were enraged and the ranks were decimated by several bayonet charges by the French troops, which, after a four hours' battle, routed the Moors with great loss. The pretender escaped.

General Layette, the French resident governor, has decided to abandon the city of Marakesh, one of the three capitals of Morocco, until sufficient troops have arrived to hold it adequately. All European residents at Marakesh have left.

Some of the candidates for the gubernatorial nomination seem to fear that the second choice will not be taken advantage of by the voters at the primaries and owing to that fact their chances will be impaired.

The Fairfax Standard issues a 32 page souvenir edition, commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Fort Ridgeley. The issue is a handsome one, profusely illustrated and nicely printed on book paper and is a credit to the publishers as well as a valuable addition to the history of the Indian wars in Minnesota.

Oscar Arneson has sold his Chisholm Tribune-Herald to F. G. Harris who takes immediate possession. Mr. Arneson has been managing Sam Gordon's gubernatorial candidacy and will devote his energies along that line until after the primary election and will assist Mr. Gordon in the election should he be successful in landing the nomination.

The St. Cloud Times wants republicans to get together on the cost of high living in Minnesota, and quotes Wm. E. Lee, candidate for governor, as placing the figures at $6.08 for 1910 and even greater for 1911. These figures The Times compares with the statement made by The Dispatch a day or two ago that the cost was $3.98 for the fiscal year just ended, or 30 cents higher than the year previous. As The Dispatch gained its information from a statement sent out from the state department it might possibly be a good thing to have it verified as the difference between the statement made by Mr. Lee and the state estimate seems to be at variance, and The Times wants to know "who is lying."

The Little Falls Herald, a leading democratic paper of the Sixth district, takes the stand that no democrat should file for congress in the Sixth district at the coming election for the reason that Congressman Lindbergh has by his vote and influence assisted the democratic party, and that the democratic party needs the votes of the progressives of all parties. In other words the Herald believes that Congressman Lindbergh is a good enough democrat for the democrats to support notwithstanding the fact that he has sailed under republican colors and was nominated and elected by republican votes. Among the democrats mentioned as possible candidates are County Attorney Hinsel, of Stearns, Con O'Brien of Crow Wing, and Senator Peterson, of Meeker county, but the Herald reads them all out of the running by saying "we doubt whether any democrat in the district could succeed against the present congressman." If Congressman Lindbergh is as good a democrat as the Herald would indicate will that paper support him if he files as a republican as against an avowed democratic candidate.

COMMUNICATION
Editors Dispatch:—
Gentlemen—I confess that to me ideas political are in the condition of crossed wires, Roosevelt declares he has left the republican party for good and all, giving as his strongest reason for doing so that he wants the people to rule, and wants primary elections to enable the people to decide who shall be their candidates. Now comes the state convention of progressives and declare unanimously for Roosevelt and his platform, which would seem to put them all into the Roosevelt party. There is nothing confusing about that, and their right to take such a position will not be denied, but where the wires cross is in the fact that many of the progressive Roosevelt supporters want office and as they apparently do not think that Roosevelt is strong enough to carry the state and pull them through on a straight and out and out Roosevelt party ticket, and realizing that they could not expect to get many votes from democrats if they went into the primary election as democrats proclaiming that if nominated at the primary, they would run as democrats, supporting Roosevelt and his platform instead of Wilson and his platform, and that if any democrat that does not support Roosevelt and his platform should be nominated, they would not support him but would run against him by petition.

As that game did not promise any success with democrats they seem to have decided after mature deliberations to work it with the republicans, therefore to Eberhart who made possible the primary election by calling an extra session of the legislature and to all other straight out republicans, they say we will go into the primaries with you and if we are nominated we claim your support, but if you are nominated we will not any of us support you but will run against you by petition and have unanimously instructed a special committee to carry that out. We loudly proclaim that we want the people to rule and we demand the primary elections to enable them to determine who shall be their candidates, but if the people decide for any of you as against any of us, we will not abide by the will of the people but will run independent in spite of the people. We will not vote for any regular republican either at the primary or at polls but we ask you regular republicans, to vote for us at the primary and the polls. If this is not publicly proclaiming in advance that they will not abide the will of the people, please tell me why it is not. With great respect,
A Progressive, but Regular Republican.

SALOON LICENSES AT $1250, PRO AND CON

Both Sides of Question Discussed Regarding Raising of Local Licenses from $500 to $1200

THE LICENSE IN OTHER TOWNS

Crosby $1,000, Deerwood $1,000, Barrows, Oreland and Julesburg, $750 Each

"Shall the saloon license in Brainerd be raised from $500 to $1,250?" That is the question engrossing the attention of Brainerd citizens. Ever since Alderman James M. Elder, of the Second ward, started the discussion by asking the city attorney to draft a resolution setting the license at $1,250 and to set the date of the new order of things for August, 1913, there has been a storm of arguments about the order. Alderman Elder put the matter to a vote, simply to gain an expression of the aldermen, a majority of the council favoring the raise.

President of the Council C. B. Rowley, at the time he voted, stated that he would support the motion if the license was fixed at $1,000. He considered $1,250 too high.

There are 27 saloons in the city, paying into the city treasury in annual license fees $13,500. A raise, providing every saloon met the increased license charge, would yield the city additional money, making the annual fees $33,750. That makes a difference of just $20,250 on the right side of the ledger.

Those who are opposed to a tilt in the license argue along the line as to how many saloons in the city can stand the increased rate on license? If twelve remained the licenses would amount to $15,000 annually. The city would still be ahead on licenses but it would lose the water and light rentals on 15 buildings. Their owners would be out the rent on those same buildings. They would have to be remodeled if they were to accommodate other lines of business, and the town is not large enough to support other lines of business competing with those at present established. The men and their families, thirty bartenders or more, would have to leave the city to find employment and homes in other places. Even at $500 the year some saloons in the city are barely clearing expenses. There is a theoretical and a practical side to the license question.

The laws are being obeyed by all. There has been no trouble in any place. Few drunks appear on the streets and they are promptly taken in hand by the police.

Licenses outside of Brainerd are of different figures. Deerwood's two saloons pay $1,000 each annually. Cuyuna's one saloon pays $1,000. At Crosby the license this year was raised from $500 to $1,000. There is but one saloon there. The saloons at Ironton, Julesburg, Oreland, Ironhub, Fort Ripley and Barrows, pay $750 each. Pequot is dry. Jenkins pays $500.

FATHER OF 14 STABS A MAN

Special to Dispatch:—

Little Falls, Minn., Aug. 17—As a result of a saloon row here last night Alex Karnowski, 21 years of age, is in the hospital with a deep cut just under the heart and may die. John Wrularske, 44 years of age, driver of a team for the Hennepin Paper company, is in the jail charged with the stabbing. It appears that both men had had trouble in a saloon early in the evening and the elder man had at that time drawn a knife. He was ejected from the place but hung around the front of the building until closing up time. When the younger man came out the row was renewed and both started up the street together. They had gone about a block when the stabbing took place. The older man claims that someone whom he does not know did the knife cutting, but others who saw the men together state that no other person was in the vicinity. The prisoner is the father of 14 children the last of whom was born but a week ago.

Later—Wrularske has confessed to having used the knife.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Many Options Being Taken in the Southern District in Deerwood Township

BRAINERD-CUYUNA CO'S. WORK

Railway Extension Keeps Pace With Mining Development on the Cuyuna Range

The week on the Cuyuna iron range was marked by the large number of options for exploration and the purchase of lands which were placed on record.

Francis W. Sullivan, of Duluth, released his option to Charles J. Oberg of Deerwood. The land, described as the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter and the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 2-46-29 was then optioned to Nels Anderson, of Virginia, Minn., on payment of $500. A. J. Harker, of Duluth, is reported ed to have made a good strike in section 17-46-29.

Ore is reported to have been struck on the Dick Woolfert farm in section 22-47-29.

The Brainerd-Cuyuna Mining company, drilling on the south side of Brainerd within the city limits, is in 120 feet of ore in its fifth hole, the ore averaging 55 per cent. They expect to block out from two to six million tons of ore and are confident that a shaft will be started this year.

Joseph J. Hennen, of St. Paul, has heavy interests on the range. He has three forties near the Carlson Exploration company property in section 17-46-29. He has large holdings in company with George H. Crosby of Crosby in sections 47 and 46, range 29. He owns fully 2,400 acres between Deerwood and the Mississippi river. For the last 14 years he cruised about and helped to colonize the country which now is found to carry incalculable wealth in the shape of iron ore.

There has been a heavy stampede to the Clearwater district resembling the first strikes made on the Cuyuna. The fact that some of the prospectors are doubling their drills indicates that ore is being located or that a strenuous effort is being made to find it.

The Soo line is building its 12 mile extension west from Ironton and all indications point to the ultimate building of the railroad nine miles more into Brainerd.

The county commissioners of Crow Wing county have over half a dozen applications on file for the office of mining inspector.

P. H. Nelson, of Duluth, has secured an option for lease on the 90 acres owned by the Cuyuna Iron Ore Co. The lease is taken on a basis of 35 cents per ton royalty, with a minimum of 20,000 tons in 1913 and 50,000 tons per year thereafter. The owners of the fee are mostly Superior people and include C. T. Robinson, Dr. O'Brien, L. E. Waterman, John T. Murphy and Archie McKay of Superior; C. W. Potts of Crosby Beach, Deerwood; R. W. Anderson of Duluth and Dr. R. J. Sewall of Crosby. The property is lots 8 and 9 in section 18, township 46 range 29.

The Mangan Iron & Steel company has lately acquired an additional property on the range situated in the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 10, township 46, range 29, and adjoining the Armour No. 1 mine. The property is considered valuable and it is said has been proven to contain high grade ore.

Joseph J. Hennen, of St. Paul, is reported to have made arrangements with Duluth men to drill in sections 5 and 6 in Rail Prairie township, Morrison county.

A Minnesota branch of the American Mining congress has been organized in Duluth. Recently a branch was organized in the copper and iron country and the leading business men of northern Michigan were heartily in accord with the idea. The success encountered in the organization work in Michigan has led to the undertaking of the work here. The mining society is being discussed on the Cuyuna and many may join from this section.

During the coming weeks every farm in Crow Wing county whose crop is threshed is a story, if the yield is good.

"The Prince of To-Night"

Theatre goes everywhere have placed the stamp of unqualified approval upon "The Prince of To-Night" the musical spectacle to be presented at the Brainerd opera house Tuesday evening, September 3rd. It ran for two hundred and sixty nights in Chicago, and ran amuck in smashing all box office records in the various cities it has visited. Aside from its interesting story, its gorgeous costuming, its scenic beauty and its all round clever cast, its tuneful music is a tower of strength, with a pretty melody that one longs to hear again and again. "Her Eyes Are Blue For Yale," "Tonight Will Never Come Again," "I Can't Marry Your Family," "You're a Dear Old World After All," "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now," and "Can't It Be Love?" are the musical gems, and keep the audience whistling as they leave the theatre.

NEXT GAME WITH LITTLE FALLS

Brainerd Plays Sunday at the Metropolis of Morrison County, a Sure Winner

LAST GAME FOR LITTLE FALLS

Little Falls Transcript Reviews the Baseball Situation in Its Home Town

The last scheduled league game and probably the last game of the season, for the Little Falls team, says the Little Falls Transcript, will be played next Sunday when the Blues meet the Brainerd team. So far this season Little Falls has defeated Brainerd but once and that was an exhibition game. Brainerd leads the other clubs in the league by a good margin while Little Falls is near the bottom. Sunday's game will be the last opportunity for the local team to better their standing and get back into the graces of the fans and the boys will make a determined effort to win. The Brainerd team is not as strong as when Larson, the St. Paul player, was used on second base.

In other words, Little Falls has been making a bid for the cellar championship.

On Sunday, August 25, Akeley will play a return game with Brainerd and in that contest Brainerd will endeavor to put it all over the sawmill town which won on a fluke in its recent game with the pennant winners.

There is some talk about a Bush day in Brainerd when the hero of the Missoula team returns. The fans should do something to show their appreciation of the boy who put Brainerd on the baseball map of the west and gave this town invaluable advertising.

The fans of Sank Rapids want another game with Brainerd. They have a decided hunch that the outcome of the contest of last Sunday at Brainerd when their club lost by a count of 6 to 5 does not show the relative strength of the clubs and for that reason do not wish the result to stand. Nor do they make the bare assertion that the relative strength of teams is not shown. Claiming that failure on the part of the umpire to call time when a Brainerd player was on the diamond, the fans adhere to the contention that the peg by Robertson to second base was necessarily wild. The run resulting gave Brainerd the game. Just to show that they are real, dyed-in-the-wool sports and are not resorting to spouting hot atmosphere, the Sank Rapids sportsmen have gathered together a pile of ducats totaling $100. This pile of lucre they wish to pile at the side of a like amount of Brainerd money.

After the little matter of finance has been adjusted the Sank Rapids fans want the Brainerd club to meet their nine on the Little Falls field and there clash for honors and incidentally the $200 previously deposited.—St. Cloud Times.

NEWSPAPER FRAUD ARRESTED

Fargo Newspaper Circulation Contest Fails to Make Good on Prizes Offered Contestants

A telegram from Toledo, Ohio, tells of the arrest by Postoffice Inspector Egge, in whose territory Brainerd lies and who is well known in this city, of W. E. Ashley on the charge of failing to make good on prizes offered in a newspaper circulation contest in Fargo after sending the papers through the mails. He pleaded not guilty before a United States court and was held in bail of $1,000 pending his removal to the jurisdiction of the United States court at Fargo. The officers said that M. H. Hatcher and A. M. Baker, alleged accomplices of Ashley, are under arrest in Fargo.

POTATO MACHINES

Experience of Successful Potato Growers is Given Regarding Diggers

Now that the potato harvesting season is approaching, there will be a demand in many sections of the state for potato diggers. In determining the machine to be purchased, many perplexing problems will arise.

There are several kinds of diggers that have proved successful in Minnesota. Many of these diggers have a sacker, though the sacker has not been successful generally. It requires an extra man and two extra horses, which is much more expensive. There is an attachment that drops the potatoes in piles containing about one and one-half bushels that is a success. If the ground is clean and the potatoes are ripe, a potato scoop can be used in scooping the tubers into a basket. If the potatoes are green, the skin will be rubbed off.

There is no digger that has a sorter which will grade the potatoes as they are dug. The only successful way of sorting potatoes is by screening them in the warehouse, a method by which many potatoes can be graded in a day. A digger with high wheels is superior to one with low wheels as they have a better lift when the machine is driven over wet or soft ground. Low wheels are liable to load up and clog.—C. E. Brown, Extension Division, Minnesota Agricultural College.

AUTO VS. DRAFT HORSE

Breeding of Heavy Horses More Promising Than Ever Before

Never in the history of the draft horse has the future appeared so promising to breeders as now, despite the statements of a leading speaker at the annual meeting of the State Veterinarian's Association at Minneapolis several weeks ago that the automobile and auto-truck were driving it out of the business. There is no reason, in the light of statistics, why the doom of the draft horse should be spelled by the auto.

Though the enormous number of auto-trucks in the cities might lead one to believe that they were crowding the draft horse out of business, actual figures do not prove it. Statistics in the office of the Minnesota Stallion registration board show that the number of sires used in this state for horse-breeding has increased from 3,544, May 1, 1910, to 4,445, May 1, 1912. During the same period the number of registered draft sires has increased 35 per cent, there now being over 1,450 in Minnesota. This is an excellent guide to conditions of the industry in this state and throughout the country.

Never in the history of the Chicago and St. Louis markets, the two largest ones in the United States, has the demand been so keen or the prices so high for high class horses of all types, especially the superior draft type. Statistics from the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry show that the number of horses in this country has increased from 13,500,000 to 21,500,000 in the past decade. The value of all horses in this country has increased from $45 to $115 in the same period. This has occurred despite the increase in the use of automobiles.

First class draft horses have been almost prohibitive in price this year, because of the great demand for them and a team of drafters has often sold as high as $800 to $1,000. The demand for high class saddle and carriage horses in the Eastern cities has been so great that their prices have been almost prohibitive to many who can afford automobiles.

All this should be very encouraging to persons in the United States interested in horse-breeding. When horses have increased at so rapid a rate the last two years, and prices have kept soaring in spite of the increase, there is no reason to believe that the automobile will ever drive them out of business. Instead of the automobile causing a scarcity of horses, it would be more reasonable to say that the scarcity of horses has caused the temporary advent of the automobile and auto-truck.

Farmers in Minnesota need not fear to grow more horses. If they are large, sound, and serviceable, they will always demand the highest prices. The horse industry is founded on a permanent basis, and has no reason to conflict with the automobile industry in any way.—Joseph Montgomery, Secretary of Minnesota Stallion Registration Board.

Indian Killed on Track

Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it is that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of Grip," writes J. R. Watts, Floydada, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists. tts

"Never does what she ought to or what you expect, eh?"
"That is just it. Sometimes she does. She is inconsistently inconsistent."

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Brainerd People to Neglect

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease often follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in this locality.

Mrs. Hattie Wandrie, Crosby, Minn., says: "For the past two or three years I suffered a great deal from pains through the small of my back and sides. I was also subject to headache and my whole system seemed to be disordered. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me much annoyance. I finally procured a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time after beginning their use, I felt better in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills have my highest endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

M. W. SAVAGE'S CHAMPION HORSES THAT WILL MAKE NEW WORLD'S RECORDS AT THE MINNESOTA STATE FAIR ON MONDAY, SEPT. 2.

MONEY MAKING CHANCES FOR ALL COMERS TO THE MINNESOTA STATE FAIR.

Never before has the management of a state or national exposition ever offered such an amount in cash prizes as the Minnesota State Fair has in its 1912 premium list. While the amount of money offered does not make the fair it nevertheless indicates the position occupied by the management and its desire to bring the best and the greatest variety of every kind of production to the great exposition in September.

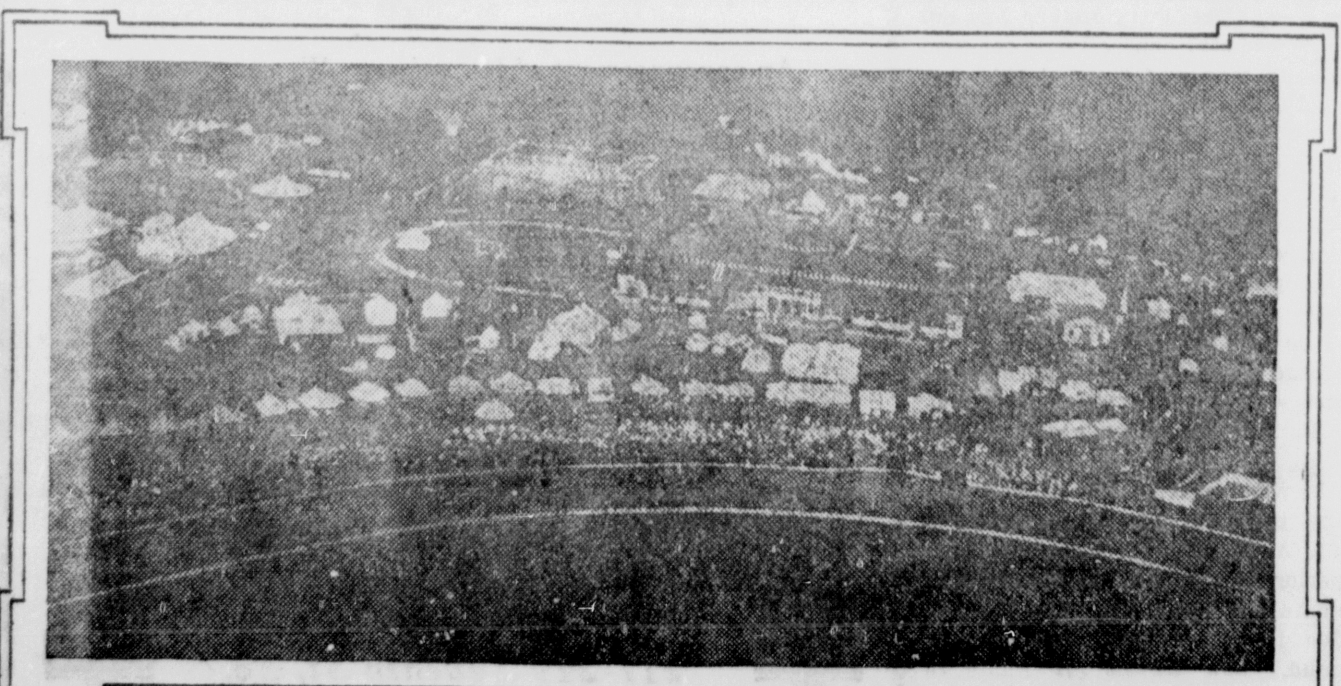

There may be other fairs which have a larger exhibit in some one department, but there is none that can boast of as well balanced exhibits in all departments as will be seen on the Minnesota State Fair grounds at Hamline, September 2 to 7, 1912.

A summary of the prizes offered in the various divisions and departments of the fair follows:

Horses and Ponies.....$12,025.00
